

Approval of the layout for production

The printout or digital image of this layout approval and release for production is not binding for the final material and color appearance.

It has been prepared according to your specifications and carefully checked. However, errors cannot be totally excluded. Therefore, please approve the proof after carefully checking completeness of the logo, image, text, size, correct positioning and conformance to all dimensional data. After your approval, we cannot assume any liability for errors which may have remained. To meet the planned delivery date, we require your approval as soon as possible.
