LIABILITY - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY. Proof Only. Colour proofs are not necessarily colour or clarity accurate and may vary from final printed product according to printing ink, medium and substrate. For accurate colour approval consult a Pantone colour guide. First Impression Labels and its repro house accepts no responsibility for any mistakes whatsoever after proof has been accepted and signed. Therefore it is advisable that customers check final material, as well as various government specifications and regulations. No project will proceed to the final stage unless a signed proof is on our premises. Although we take precaution to produce the barcode/s to GS1 standards, the responsibility of the barcode/s rest with you the customer. First Impression Labels and its repro house will not be held responsible for any existing or future designs that do not conform to the full requirements as specified by retailers.
