

The positions of the labels of our product on the device and protective packaging are as follows.

The circular shaped label information is printed on the device by laser. The square label is placed on the protective package.

Figure 1*. Device and Device in Protective Package

Figure 2*. Device in Protective Package

 The product image belongs to another discair product. The positioning of the labels is the same as the Airplus Discair products.*